

Account Services Personnel

Angell Marketing is looking for Account Services Personnel to join our Client Services team. We're a niche marketing and advertising agency serving senior living and health care clients throughout the country. Located in Uptown Phoenix, we offer a small agency vibe with big opportunities for growth.

Our agency was built on a foundation of marketing expertise, a passion for the field of senior living, and the belief that the communities we work with deserve strong results, a substantial return on their marketing investment, and seasoned talent focused 100% on their success. With over 30 years experience marketing operating communities, redevelopments and expansions, planned developments, and new products and services, we help our clients face tough challenges and solve problems for the short- and long-term success.

Our Account Service team members are responsible for developing and executing marketing programs by leading the day-to-day client relationship, initiating work with our creative team and vendors, and managing timelines and budgets. Opportunities may include travel to industry conferences and assisting with new business development.

Qualifications of the ideal candidate include:

- Bachelor's Degree
- 2-4 years advertising agency experience, or onsite marketing experience at a senior living community
- Excellent communication skills – written and verbal
- Efficient multi-tasking, management of priorities, high attention to detail
- Well organized, problem-solver and can-do, positive attitude
- Computer skills necessary, especially on Microsoft Office programs; Mac experience preferred
- Digital, social media and direct mail experience a plus
- Senior living or health care marketing experience a plus

Angell Marketing provides competitive benefits, including 401K, profit sharing and health insurance.
